

Tribe of The One & Welcome to the Neighborhood

Tribe of The One is a focus on the 2nd part of our church strategy: living in community. We want to ask the question: if a church can't build community, can it really be called a church? In this series, we'll break down what it means to be a "tribe of the one" and how God created us for others.

Welcome to the neighborhood is our Christmas series. When The Word became flesh and blood and moved into the neighborhood (John 1:14 MSG) everything changed for everyone. This Christmas season, we're going to take a few weeks to talk about what that exactly means for today's teenager.

MEMORY VERSE

"They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer."
Acts 2:42

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your teen starts their day, point out something well they've done lately that they probably believe you didn't notice.

Drive Time

During a drive this week, have everyone answer the question, "What does devoted to fellowship mean to you?"

Meal Time

If you find out something about your teen, try not to let fear or other emotions determine your response. If needed, ask for some time to process what you find out and then make decisions on how to move forward.

Bed Time

Pray that both you and your teen will experience and see reminders in your daily lives that God is with you
