

This Matters

This annual series continually focuses on the topics that matter to our students' development in their faith. For these 4 weeks, we will be focusing on a theme of relationships each week: family, friends, sex and dating, and marriage.

Our hope is to guide students to a biblical understanding of how to honor these different kind of relationships. We want them to not only honor the people in each of these dynamics, but the Lord as well.

MEMORY VERSE

"Be devoted to one another in love.
Honor one another above yourselves.
Romans 12:10

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your middle schooler starts their day, acknowledge a time when they showed honor or respect to someone.

Drive Time

While on the go this week, show your kid respect by asking their opinion on a family issue. This isn't a time for correction, just for listening. So give them space to share even if you don't agree with their point of view.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone answer this question: "What are some things that all people desire? (to be loved, to be wanted, to be touched) Which of those resonates most with you? And why?"

Bed Time

Pray that you and your kid will honor God with your desires this week.
