

A dirt road winds through a field of tall grass under a cloudy sky. The scene is captured in a monochromatic, reddish-orange color palette, giving it a dramatic and somewhat somber atmosphere. The road leads the eye from the bottom center towards the horizon, where the grass meets a line of trees and a hazy sky filled with soft, textured clouds.

“Even now,” declares the Lord, “return to me with all your heart, with fasting and weeping and mourning.” Rend your heart and not your garments. Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love, and he relents from sending calamity.

Joel 2:12-13

To say yes to Jesus, this lent I will say no to...
